

2022 ANNUAL REPORT

CELEBRATING PARTNERSHIPS

Celebrating Partnerships

The New York Bar Foundation is the heart of the legal community. We play a unique role by bringing together lawyers, non-profit legal organizations, Fellows, and NYSBA members, to help improve the lives of people throughout New York State. Together, we shine a spotlight on the giving side of the profession and people who work to uphold justice and the rule of law during these challenging times.

Not only are these partnerships critical to our work and the future of The New York Bar Foundation, but they provide critical support to some of the most vulnerable people in our communities.

The Foundation's work is impactful to our communities

Because of you, the Foundation's grant program served 1,291,404 individual people this year and impacted more than 2.7 million beneficiaries.

These people faced unstable and life-changing situations such as eviction, abuse, loss of access to health care benefits and education, and being illegally discharged from a nursing home to a homeless shelter. These are only a few examples of how your donations makes a difference to people of all ages and backgrounds throughout New York State.

The Foundation's work is impactful to the profession

In addition to providing services to the most vulnerable, your support also helps set the path for law students to excel in their profession. NYSBA Section gifts to the Foundation and individual donations help provide financial support to law students through scholarship opportunities and unparalleled experience through fellowships. These fellowships offer invaluable opportunities to meet and network with potential mentors and leaders of the law community.

There is still much work to be done as the needs of our most vulnerable neighbors continue to grow. But through these critical partnerships, we will continue to be the heart of the legal community and remain steadfast in increasing our impact.

There is a quote by Henry Ford that says, "Coming together is the beginning. Keeping together is progress. Working together is success."

We are pleased to highlight how by coming together with the Foundation, you have helped in our success in increasing access to justice across New York State. We invite you to celebrate these partnerships with us in this year's annual report.

Thank you for your support and making a difference through The New York Bar Foundation,

A Message to The Fellows

Partnerships are commonly understood as being formed by individuals who seek to create and administer a business for a common purpose. A partner assumes a fiduciary responsibility to act in the best interests of the partnership generally, and in the best interests of other partners. Ethics demand that partners act in good faith and demonstrate the traits of loyalty, fairness, and diligence.

This general framework from the business partnership realm provides a fitting context to explore how the partnership between The New York Bar Foundation and the Fellows has and continues to be a model relationship. The Foundation serves as the philanthropic entity of the New York State Bar Association and raises funds to advance its mission. Primary goals include advancing service to the public, improving the administration of justice, supporting legal research and education, upholding high standards of professional ethics, and increasing public understanding of legal heritage. The Fellows of the Foundation embrace these principles. Our Fellows are unquestionably distinguished members of the bench and bar who are recognized for outstanding professional achievement, dedication to the legal profession, and commitment to the Rule of Law.

“Fellows + Foundation = The Model Partnership”

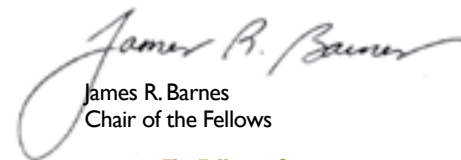

Our Foundation would not be sustainable without the support of the Fellows. Likewise, a bar association without an active, charitable foundation would leave its finest members without the opportunity to impact the legal community in truly meaningful ways. Simply stated, the Foundation needs the best the bar can offer to advance its mission, and those special attorneys can find a place to give back in a way that impacts people in every corner of our state. Fellows are nominated and elected because they have embodied the ideals of “loyalty, fairness, and diligence” throughout their careers.

Fellows understand that for this partnership to flourish, action is required to further the mission of the Foundation itself, as well as spurring on the good works of other Fellows. That fiduciary responsibility mentioned at the outset is fulfilled by our Fellows time and time again. The generosity of time, money, and encouragement has been unmatched these last few years. The adherence to the very core principles of what it means to be a Fellow and support not just any worthy cause, but our cause – our Bar Foundation – inextricably reveals the bond you have fostered.

Significant work lies ahead. Seemingly each year, the ask of the Foundation is more – grants by organizations seeking greater funding to serve the ever-growing needs of the most vulnerable in our community. In distracting times, partners must continue to determine how to maximize the impact on the greater good. So, as you read this in 2023, what can you do? How can you, a Fellow who in all likelihood has already formed partnership bonds with the Foundation for many years, do something more? It’s probably less about doing something more, and more about doing something now. Renew your commitment to the Foundation by joining a new circle of giving. Support one of our many opportunities for direct, dedicated fundraising at various points of the year, including the Annual Meeting, district challenges, and the Veteran’s Campaign. Plan or attend a local Fellows district event. Become a firm sponsor. Nominate at least one colleague each year to become a Fellow. The exponential nature of each of these efforts is unlimited.

Thank you, Fellows, for your unwavering commitment to the best of what our profession can offer to our state and communities. I’m sincerely grateful to serve as your chair, and look forward to the significant impact our partnership with the Foundation will continue to have in 2023 and beyond.

Access Justice Brooklyn – Homeowner Assistance Program

254 people were served and 429 people were impacted by this grant

Together, we partnered with Access Justice Brooklyn to help a 64-year-old woman avoid eviction

“Ms. P.” has lived in her home for over 20 years. Even before the emergence of the COVID-19 pandemic, a procession of unfortunate circumstances made it increasingly difficult for her to pay her mortgage. A work-related injury forced her to retire earlier than anticipated; resulting in collecting social security disability payments and a monthly pension, instead of the more substantial employment income previously received. When the pandemic hit, her tenant stopped paying rent for several months and then defaced the unit before abruptly leaving. This deprived Ms. P. of the rental income she had been depending on to make mortgage payments, and forced her to spend even more of her limited funds to fix the unit. Ms. P. was also notified that her monthly mortgage amount would increase by approximately $300 due to an escrow shortage on the account.

The sudden lack of rental income combined with the increased mortgage payment rendered Ms. P. unable to afford her mortgage payments. Although a mortgage servicer established a forbearance plan for her, her loan balance continued to grow due to the accrual of missed payments and fees. Access Justice Brooklyn (Brooklyn) began working with Ms. P. to assist her with the preparation and submission of a loan modification application.

Ms. P.’s fortunes improved and she found a new tenant restoring her household income to its pre-pandemic level. Ms. P. was approved for a loan modification which reduced her monthly payments by over $200 and her newly affordable mortgage has allowed her to remain in her home of over two decades.

“Funding from The Foundation has allowed us to sustain and grow several programs over the years, most recently our Homeowner Assistance Program. Specifically, this grant supported expenses necessary to continue providing essential foreclosure intervention and prevention assistance to Brooklyn homeowners – services that are especially critical in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic. In the last year we have expanded our program staff to better meet the need for assistance and help ensure that Brooklyn homeowners can remain in their communities. Given the impact of this funding on our work, we are deeply grateful to The New York Bar Foundation’s donors for their support and commitment to the Foundation’s mission.”

Western New York Law Center, Inc. –
Small Business Legal Clinic

140 people were served and 660 were impacted by this grant

Together, we partnered with Western New York Law Center, Inc. to help a couple start a business

Mrs. C. and her husband lost their jobs as stylists when the salon they worked at closed during the pandemic. With four children to support, they needed to figure out their next steps, and quick.

Opportunities at local salons kept falling through. They decided it was as good a time as any to open their own business to start generating income for their family. As a result of a partnership with a local small business development organization, Western New York Law Center, Inc. (WNYLC) (Buffalo) was connected with Mrs. C. and her husband to form their LLC. In addition to forming their LLC, WNYLC assisted with adding a DBA to their LLC for branding/advertising purposes and drafted an investor contract to lay out the terms for an investor who decided to invest money in their business.

Their salon has opened and they are starting to build up their business and generate revenue again. Mrs. C. and her husband are thankful for the help in realizing their dream, stabilizing their finances, and achieving economic self-sufficiency for themselves and their family. They would not have been able to afford a private attorney and expressed how appreciative and grateful they were for the free legal services they received.

“Our program provides our clients with free, essential business law services that they would otherwise be unable to afford. In the absence of affordable legal services, low-income entrepreneurs may forgo starting otherwise viable businesses; do business without legal counsel thereby exposing themselves to potentially devastating liabilities; and/or enter into business transactions without proper contracts, unknowingly infringe intellectual property rights, neglect to pay proper sales and income tax, unintentionally fail to fulfill legal obligations owed to employees, or start doing a business without necessary licenses and permits. It has always been, and continues to be, our main goal to see small business owners succeed by giving them the tools they need to get their businesses up and running and remain in operation. We are thankful to The Foundation for this grant support.”

Family Justice Center of Erie County – Client Petition Support Program

311 were served and 850 people were impacted by this grant

Together, we partnered with Family Justice Center of Erie County to help a 16-year-old girl

A detective in the suburb of Amherst referred “Megan,” a 16-year-old girl to the Family Justice Center (Buffalo). After her parents lost custody of her, Megan lived with her grandmother, but that housing arrangement proved to be just as abusive as life with her parents.

Megan’s grandmother allowed her father unsupervised visits, even though he still struggled with drug addiction, and behaved erratically in her presence. Worse, she allowed her other son, Megan’s uncle, unfettered access to the home. Megan’s uncle molested her, and when she spoke up about the abuse, her grandmother accused her of lying. Unable to withstand these circumstances, Megan ran away from her grandmother’s house. She moved in with her boyfriend and his mother, and confided in her boyfriend’s mother about the abuse. The mother consented to letting Megan stay at her house, but before long, the police showed up to take her back to her grandmother.

Megan was then referred to the Family Justice Center (FJC) for assistance. With their assistance Megan was able to file an Order of Protection that would prevent her from having to return to her grandmother’s house, and would enable her to take steps toward legal emancipation. The order was filed within 24 hours of Megan’s visit to the FJC, and was successful. FJC also helped Megan address the ways in which her abuse, and the Order of Protection process, had affected her ability to live a normal teenage life.

During this upheaval, Megan had been unable to prepare for prom, so the FJC assembled a prom care package for her, enabling her to experience a teen rite of passage despite all she had been through.

“Though the bulk of our work focuses on intimate partner violence, it is not unusual for us to receive requests for help from other Erie County residents facing other forms of abuse at the hands of people in their immediate circle of care and acquaintance. This grant from the New York State Bar Foundation enables us to give them the help they need, as well.”

Horseheads Family Resource Center – The Better Together Project

82 were served and 800 people were impacted by this grant

Together, we partnered with Horseheads Family Resource Center to provide a child visitation

The Better Together Project (BTP) aims to provide children with the opportunity to visit with their non-custodial parents free of charge in a safe, child-friendly environment utilizing a strength-based approach to coach and mentor families toward meeting their family's individual goals. During visits, staff encourage positive interactions between children and their non-custodial parent(s) and increase the non-custodial parent's awareness and response to their child's needs and interests.

When a new family unit entered the BTP several months ago, the father had had limited contact with his daughter and a continuous relationship with his daughter's mother. With their trained coordinator, the family identified goals and both parents received hands-on support to help transition the girl into and out of visits. The BTP coordinator continuously modeled positive interactions and parenting strategies to help reduce stress during transitions and encouraged both parents to do the same. During visits the father was also provided support to engage and play with his daughter.

Now, after several months, the parents are able to participate in weekly visits without conflict and the daughter looks forward to visiting her father, and enjoys her time at the HFRC, (Horseheads). Although unsupervised visits have not yet been granted, the family unit has made significant progress towards their goals.

“A wide-range of diverse families attend HFRC programs, interact, and build friendships. By giving families the opportunity to be together with families of all different backgrounds and life experiences, parents and children become more aware and accepting of the differences in their community, often forming friendships with people they may not have otherwise met. This is particularly true of the families enrolled in the Better Together Program, who are historically disproportionately minorities and/or part of the disadvantaged and underserved population. As a desperately needed resource in our area, the HFRC is committed to continuing the Better Together Program to the fullest extent allowed by funding, with the hopes of increasing the budget to accommodate more families and visits. We are so thankful for TNYBF's recognition of this important service and its huge impact on the lives of the children and families needing this service.”

New York Lawyers Love Veterans

The Foundation Partners with The Young Lawyers Section to Help Veterans

Each November for the past seven years The Young Lawyers Section and Foundation have partnered to raise funds to support the Foundation’s grant program with a special focus on veteran’s legal services projects.

The on-line campaign raised more than $23,000 from donations by lawyers, their families and friends from throughout New York State, as well as Connecticut, Colorado, Florida, Hawaii, Illinois, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, and Virginia.

In addition to numerous firm partners, this year’s campaign welcomed Platinum Sponsor, Greenfield Stein & Senior, LLP. “We are grateful for the service and sacrifices made by our veterans and thankful for the efforts of The New York Bar Foundation in assisting those who have given so much with their legal needs. It is our pleasure to support such a worthy endeavor,” said Gary B. Freidman, Greenfield Stein & Senior, LLP.

Since inception the campaign has raised more than $110,000 and has assisted veterans with legal services through grants provided to legal organizations throughout New York State including: Brooklyn Defender Services, Disability Rights NY, Legal Services of the Hudson Valley, Syracuse University, The Legal Aid Bureau of Buffalo Inc., Legal Aid Society of Mid-New York, Inc., Nassau Suffolk Law Services, and Volunteers of Legal Services.

Partnerships with Law Schools, Donors, and NYSBA

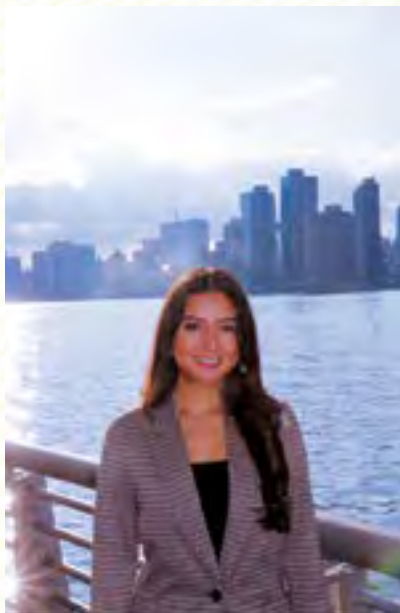

For nearly two decades the Foundation has been administering scholarships and fellowships that assist law students and provide valuable experiences and help build a network of mentors and colleagues.

This year more than $189,000 in fellowships and scholarships were presented to 98 students in a multitude of legal practice areas.

What is the impact?

One fellowship administered by the Foundation is the Catalyst Public Service Fellowship. Since 2016, 345 fellowships have been presented to students totaling more than $1.7 million (including a match from law schools). The program, inspired by former Chief Judge Janet DiFiore and seeded by unused campaign funds before she was appointed Chief Judge of the New York State Court of Appeals, offers students opportunities to intern in public service throughout the state. Some of the internships have occurred in the Appellate Division, Second Judicial Department of the New York State Supreme Court, Brooklyn Defender Services, Center for Family Representation, Empire Justice Center, Monroe County District Attorney's Office, Nassau County Supreme Court, New York Legal Assistance Group's Domestic Violence Clinical Center, New York State Supreme Court, Tompkins County Court, and numerous Legal Aid Society's across New York State.

Samantha A. Lopez, a 2022 Catalyst Public Service Fellowship Recipient shares her experience.

My experience as a Summer Legal Intern at the Immigration Intervention Project at Sanctuary for Families is the exact type of summer experience I hoped for when I began law school. I was able to gain a better understanding of the legal immigration process and work directly with clients as I wrote an asylum brief, drafted a clients affidavit, and filed N-600 forms. Meeting with the clients and being able to talk with them mostly in Spanish was an amazing experience that really cemented that I am on the right path. Being a Catalyst Fellow really allowed me to hone and focus on my skills at a well-known non-profit in NYC. I was able to develop many skills and obtain opportunities that I would not have been able to have had I chosen a paid position in a field that I was not passionate about. I am extremely grateful and honored for the opportunity to be a Catalyst Fellow and will never forget my IL summer experience because of that.

NYSBA Sections Partner with the Foundation to Provide a Better Future

The Business Law Section, Family Law Section, and General Practice Section of the NYSBA have generously provided gifts to the Foundation's grant program for several years. These grants provide critical support while aligning with each section's purpose in meaningful ways.

For the past five years, The Business Law Section has been partnering with the Foundation to help provide financial support for programs that provide legal advice and assistance to military veterans, minorities and other underserved New York residents seeking to establish their own small business enterprises in the State of New York. The Business Law Section of the New York State Bar Association is comprised of attorneys concentrating on all aspects of laws relating to business operations. Several years ago, the Executive Committee of the Section recognized an obligation to support and assist the state's economy by helping to encourage small business development in New York. "The Section's approach was to focus on military veterans, minorities and other underserved New Yorkers trying to start new businesses who could benefit from legal services, and offer funding to non-profit organizations providing such services," explains Stuart Newman, founder and former editor-in-chief of the section's journal. "In 2018, the section began a partnership with The New York Bar Foundation to contribute to grants awarded by the Foundation. This has provided an opportunity for the Section to have a positive impact in a way that aligns with our mission."

One organization, Volunteers of Legal Service (VOLS), New York City, received a grant for their Legal Assistance to Veteran-Owned and Underserved Small Business program. By providing clients with access to free legal advice and representation they help to equalize the legal and economic playing field for small business owners. Access to civil justice for low-income and veteran New Yorkers is unattainable without the support that organizations like VOLS and public-sector and private bar collaborations provide.

Funding from the Foundation enabled VOLS to directly serve veteran-owned businesses and continue to be a thought leader in the fields of legal services to veterans and under resourced microentrepreneurs.

One client, "JL," is a Gulf War era veteran, social worker, Haitian immigrant, and entrepreneur. Two years ago, he launched an online women's retail store with the goal of providing an affordable and accessible source for women's clothing and accessories. JL went to VOLS for assistance with drafting an independent contractor agreement template for a social media consultant for his business. VOLS found him a pro bono attorney with extensive experience in drafting contracts. These legal services will help him keep his business competitive and successful. Without access to VOLS' vast pro bono network, JL would not have been able to access an attorney, much less one with significant expertise, due to the lack of affordable legal resources for small businesses in New York City. The average hourly rate of an attorney practicing business law in New York City is between $300-$400 per hour, and it is standard practice for private attorneys to require an upfront retainer covering 5-10 hours of work. JL received high-quality free legal services and did not have to worry about mounting legal fees for a simple contract.

"I thank Stuart Newman for initiating the Business Law Section's now annual tradition of contributing to The New York Bar Foundation," said Section Chair Thomas Pitegoff. "Because of his foresight, we are able to assist organizations whose missions are to help small businesses in New York State. We are grateful to the Foundation for its assistance each year in vetting and suggesting worthy recipient organizations. This is a truly valuable partnership."

Lifetime Achievement Award Presented to John D. Feerick, Dean Emeritus and Professor, Fordham Law School

John D. Feerick, dean emeritus and professor, Fordham Law School was presented with the Foundation's Lifetime Achievement Award during the virtual Annual Assembly of the Fellows in January, 2022. He has been a Fellow of the Foundation since 1981.

Nominated by the Fellows Chairs of the First Judicial District Sylvia Chin (White & Case) and Raymond Dowd (Dunnington Bartholow & Miller), his nomination read, "During his lifetime, John has been a north star for all professionals whose lives he has touched, whether or not they were aware of his enormous achievements. I dare say that he has touched the lives of all Fellows and the communities they serve in ways big and small that they may not even realize."

Feerick is renowned for his ethics and integrity. He chaired the NYS Commission on Government Integrity, responsible for restoring the public's trust in government after 1980s corruption scandals. This was a Moreland Act Commission to which Feerick was appointed by Governor Mario Cuomo as well as being appointed as a Special Deputy Attorney General on that occasion.

He was president of the New York City Bar Association and Citizens Union Foundation, and chaired the NYS Commission to Promote Public Confidence in Judicial Elections to reform state judicial elections. Dean Feerick worked on a panel addressing New York's homelessness crisis, was a member of the NYS Law Revision Commission, the NYS Committee to Promote Public Trust and Confidence in the Legal System, the NYS Judicial Salary Commission, and the NYS Mandatory Continuing Legal Education Committee. He currently, and for a number of years, co-chairs the Chief Judge's Attorney Emeritus Council. He also served on the New York State Bar Association House of Delegates, on its executive committee, and chaired its Committee on the Federal Constitution.

Upon receiving the award Dean Feerick stated, "I am humbled beyond words to be recognized with this award and gratefully accept it in memory of those in the bar of the state with whom I have served over the past 60 years as a lawyer, including Chief Judge Judith Kaye, Archibald Murray, Judge Bernard Meyer, Cyrus Vance Sr., Herbert Brownell, Henry Miller, and Judge James King."

Partnerships Create Life

Lawyers play a vital role in the preservation of society and access to justice. When these efforts are combined with the resources and expertise of The New York Bar Foundation, the impact is far reaching and life-changing.

By investing in frontline legal services programs and law-related education, together we advance the core values of equity, justice, and fairness.

Because of your support, the Foundation allocated more than $601,000 in grants to 97 programs this year. These grants served 1,291,404 people and impacted more than 2.7 million vulnerable individuals and families throughout New York State.

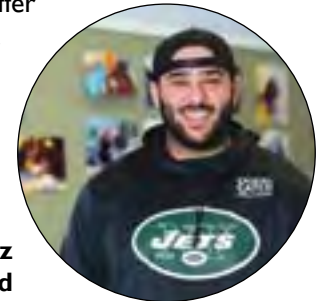

Expressions of thanks from some of our grantee organizations

A generous grant from The New York Bar Foundation allowed The Greater Hudson Promise Neighborhood to advocate for the children of incarcerated parents through our Greater Hudson Initiative for Children of Incarcerated Parents program. “See Us, Support Us” month is a nationwide campaign to reduce stigma and increase support for children of people who are currently incarcerated. This grant allowed us to embark on a county-wide media campaign to boost awareness for our in-person visiting program at the county jail, as well as reach an audience in the rural parts of the county that may not have been familiar with the services we offer for the children of incarcerated parents in the City of Hudson.

As the assistant director of the organization, and a formerly incarcerated person who served a lengthy sentence in New York State prisons, this commitment from The New York Bar Foundation meant the world. I knew first-hand the effect this would potentially have on so many children who are dealing with the traumatic effects of parental incarceration. To the donors, just know your commitments touched the lives of several children, whose families signed up for enhanced visiting upon seeing our billboards. Thank you.

Adolfo Lopez
Assistant Director, Greater Hudson Promise Neighborhood
(Hudson, JD 3)

The grant we received from The New York Bar Foundation enabled us to meet the growing needs of our youth community that have become ever more pressing since the start of the pandemic. With assistance from the Foundation’s grant we were able to support more than 450 participants through direct legal representation and workshops, ensuring that our youth had the information they needed to obtain and maintain their employment and housing, among other necessary services. Your funding allows us to provide critically needed legal services for those who would not otherwise receive them and for that we are most grateful. Thank you to the donors who support The Foundation’s mission and vision!

Maya Ennis
Associate Director of Development, Youth Represent
(New York, JD 1)

-Changing Opportunities

Funding from The New York Bar Foundation enabled us to continue and strengthen our work serving LGBTQ and HIV-Positive asylum seekers in detention. Detained asylees are some of the most vulnerable to discrimination and assault. With the help of our pro bono attorney, supported in part by the Foundation, clients have a far greater chance of both getting out of detention, and winning their case for asylum. Thank you!

Nikala Pieroni
Individual and Institutional Giving Manager, Immigration Equality
(Brooklyn, JD 2)

The Legal Department at The Safe Center LI is committed to serving victims/survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault in Nassau County. The funds received by The New York Bar Foundation allow our staff to continue to provide valuable services such as direct representation in Family Court to assist our clients in protecting themselves and their children through orders of protection and custody orders. We help our clients become self-supporting by establishing child and spousal support orders and pursuing enforcement of said orders, thereby holding respondents accountable. The financial security of families is paramount in the matrimonial actions and our legal team zealously litigates contested matrimonial matters in Supreme Court to ensure the fair and equitable distribution of the marital assets. Lastly, our immigration services provide our clients the opportunity of becoming lawful permanent residents and/or United States citizens when eligible. Our services as described by one of our clients are “life changing.” We are grateful to The New York Bar Foundation for their continued support which makes it possible for us to make a difference in our clients’ lives.

Ingrid J. Villagran, Esq.
Director of Legal Services, The Safe Center LI
(Bethpage, JD 10)

The New York Bar Foundation’s grant has allowed Lifespan of Greater Rochester’s Guardianship Program to access competent legal advice when it is necessary for Lifespan to make critical legal decisions or take action in cases of clients in the program regardless of their ability to pay legal fees. The goal of seeking legal counsel is always to preserve the wellbeing and assets of Guardianship Program clients and to secure their legal rights. In one recent case a Guardianship ward living in a nursing home retained life estate in a home that had been transferred to her son. The son had a history of financial exploitation of his mother. The house was vacant. Our client was responsible for all upkeep and repairs, but the son would not allow us access to the property although he expected us to pay for all upkeep and taxes from his mother’s assets. With the help of legal counsel, we determined that it would be more financially beneficial for our client to renounce her life estate rights and transfer full responsibility for upkeep of the property to her son. Legal counsel negotiated with son’s attorney and arranged for the dissolution of the life estate which has allowed us to preserve our client’s assets for her own use.

Circle of Giving Members

The Circle of Giving categories recognize individual Fellows who have made a major commitment to the Foundation by contributing or pledging to contribute gifts ranging from $3,000 to $75,000.

All Fellows are invited to enhance their pledge by becoming a member of a Circle of Giving or moving to a higher circle. Each Fellow becomes a Life Member of a Circle upon fulfillment of the pledge.

The Foundation thanks all of our esteemed Fellows for their support.

Legacy Members Provide For New Yorkers In Need Forever

Legacy donors provide a better tomorrow for generations of New Yorkers in need. Legacy gifts help the Foundation fund charitable and educational law-related projects in perpetuity – safeguarding access to justice and the rule of law in New York State.

A legacy gift is the greatest honor that a donor can bestow upon the Foundation. Your planned gift or bequest enables the Foundation to secure a better future for generations to come. Please join these guardians of justice by making a bequest or establishing a planned gift to the Foundation of $1,000 or more. Contact Deborah Auspelmyer at (518) 487-5650 or email dauspelmyer@tnybf.org
